

Meet the requirements of ACT 118 NONVIOLENT CRISIS INTERVENTION® TRAINING

Trainers use Crisis Prevention Institute's model which has been setting the standard for intervention training for over 35 years. Staff are equipped with proven strategies to safely diffuse anxious, hostile, or violent behavior at it's earliest possible stage.

Certified Trainers:

Amanda Betcher
betchera@cesa5.org
In-District Director of Special Education

Ashley Brügger
bruggera@cesa5.org
School Psychologist

Terry McCoy
mccoyt@cesa5.org
RSN Director

Training is designed to:

- Reduce the risk of injury
- Improve staff retention
- Minimize exposure to liability
- Identify behaviors that could lead to crisis
- Assess risk levels
- Practice holding skills

Cost for 1 year Certification:

- $125/person for groups of 10 or more
- $150/person for blended class (online & in-person) of 10 or more
- For groups fewer than 10 please contact us